"Greenville Theatre is committed to providing quality and engaging theatrical performances for our community. I truly believe their commitment has made Greenville a better place to live, and Immedion is proud to be involved as a sponsor."

Frank Mobley, CEO, Immedion

"We have partnered with the Theatre for many years and always enjoy our corporate season tickets. We love providing our employees with something that truly reflects the history and heritage of the Upstate. Sometimes we use them in Human Resources, sometimes gift them to management, other times we use them as incentives for our employees. They are always a big hit!"

Anne Cartee, Human Resource Manager, GOS

"I have advertised in the Playbill for over 20 years. I use the tickets included in my contract to provide to clients and professional contacts who refer clients to me. I also provide them to organizations who are needing a door prize for some of their events."
